Corporate Profile

A high growth, high margin corporate payments company

WEX Inc. is a leading provider of corporate payment solutions. From our roots in fleet card payments beginning in 1983, WEX has expanded the scope of the business into a multi-channel provider of corporate payment solutions and offering exceptional payment security and control across a wide spectrum of business sectors. By targeting high value markets, using innovative products to stimulate change in the industry and operating with systemic efficiency, we have maintained our position as a market leader in the virtual corporate payments industry. Our businesses and subsidiaries focus on streamlining and modernizing payment environments to give customers greater control over their business, resulting in smarter decisions, lower operating costs, higher efficiency and greater customer satisfaction. The Company's operations include WEX Bank, Fleet One, rapid! PayCard, Evolution1, WEX Australia, WEX New Zealand and WEX Europe, as well as a majority equity position in UNIK S.A., Brazil. WEX and its subsidiaries employ more than 1,700 associates. WEX has been publicly traded since February 16, 2005, and is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the ticker symbol "WEX."

- Grow and optimize our Fleet business – WEX has developed a leading market position and a proven business model in the fleet space, with stable growth and a strong margin profile. Revenue is earned primarily from payment processing, account servicing and transaction processing. WEX has site acceptance at over 90 percent of the nation's retail fuel locations. Our proprietary closed loop network system lets fleets control purchases in the field and gives them comprehensive information and analysis tools to effectively manage their operations and reduce costs.
- Expand and scale the virtual businesses into high value markets – WEX has diversified its business since our founding in 1983 to become a leader in virtual payments, providing customers with payment processing solutions for their corporate purchasing and transaction monitoring needs. We are a leader in the travel space as the number one provider of payment solutions for domestic online travel agencies. We are looking to build on our successful entry into this market and continue to grow and scale the business. We are also expanding our reach into high growth verticals such as employee and healthcare, furthered by the acquisition of Evolution1, a leader in cloud-based technology and payment solutions in the healthcare industry. areas, while still emerging, provide us the potential for longer-term growth that complements our leading positions in our core fleet and travel businesses.

- Building upon our established international presence – We are globalizing our Company to build on a leading market position in our core fleet and travel businesses. WEX’s competitive strengths and extended product suite has enabled us to move into new geographies and markets. Over the last several years, we have been systematically expanding our international footprint through a number of strategic acquisitions. Our acquisition of ExxonMobil’s Esso commercial card portfolio is a key strategic acquisition that has built our on-the-ground presence in Europe and has been a critical element to our international expansion strategy. Today, WEX has a presence in North and South America, Europe, Asia, Australia and New Zealand. We will further globalize our business by making targeted investments and scaling our operations on a global basis.
